GETTING HERE

Parksville Qualicum Beach is conveniently situated for your Vancouver Island vacation on the island's curving eastern flank, a half-hour north of the ferry terminus in Nanaimo and a little over two hours from British Columbia's capital, Victoria.

Cruise here in comfort via B.C.'s world-class ferry system, which during off-peak hours can deliver passengers and their vehicles across the Strait of Georgia from Vancouver in little more than three hours door-to-door. If you're travelling without a vehicle, Hullo Ferries offers two modern high-speed catamaran ferries that will comfortably move you from downtown Vancouver to Nanaimo in only 70 minutes. Or, hop aboard an airplane for flights into Qualicum Beach, Nanaimo, and Comox; absolutely breathtaking, the too-short trip offers glorious views of white-capped ocean waters, forested islands and jagged mountain peaks. Or load friends and family into the car and hit the highway!

If speed isn't an issue, meander to Parksville Qualicum Beach via the ocean-hugging secondary roads. Whatever the means of transport, Parksville Qualicum Beach is accessible and easy to reach

FROM VICTORIA

Drive north on Highway 1 to Nanaimo, just south of Nanaimo, take the exit for Highway 19 and the North Island. Bus and train connections are available from downtown.

FROM VANCOUVER AND THE FRASER VALLEY

Take the Lion's Gate or 2nd Narrows Bridge across Burrard Inlet, then follow the signs to Horseshoe Bay and take the BC Ferry to Nanaimo. Exit the ferry and keep to the 2 right lanes, then take Highway 19 North towards Parksville.

FROM VANCOUVER INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT AND SOUTH VANCOUVER

Take Highway 10 and 99, head to the BC Ferry terminal in Tsawwassen and catch the ferry to Duke Point (south Nanaimo). Head north on Highway 1 and then exit to Highway 19 and Parksville.

FROM SEATTLE

Head north on I-5 and cross the border at Blaine. Continue north on Highway 99 about 15 minutes, then take the exit for Tsawwassen and the ferries. Take the ferry to Nanaimo (Duke Point). Head north on Highway 1 and then exit to Highway 19 and Parksville. There are also ferries out of Anacortes and Port Angeles in Washington that will take you to Victoria, where you can follow Highway 1 and 19 north to Parksville Qualicum Beach.

FROM TOFINO OR UCLUELET

Follow Hwy. 4, the 2 - 2 1/2 hour drive leads directly to Qualicum Beach.

FROM THE COMOX VALLEY

Take either the scenic coastal Oceanside Route 19A south from Courtenay, or the four-lane Inland Island Highway 19 south. Either way, Parksville Qualicum Beach is less than an hour away.

BY AIR

Connecting flights from Vancouver International (YVR) fly into neighbouring Nanaimo Airport (YCD) and Comox Valley Airport (YQQ). Harbour Air Seaplanes, Seair, and Helijet offer flights from downtown Vancouver to downtown Nanaimo, among other routes.

Check WestJet, Air Canada, and Pacific Coastal for flights from Calgary, Edmonton, and other cities into the Nanaimo Airport and Comox Valley Airport.

Qualicum Beach Airport is home to Iskwew Air offering scheduled service from Vancouver International YVR South Terminal and charter flights..

BY WATER

Full service marinas are located in Nanoose Bay, Deep Bay, and French Creek.

ARROWSMITH COOMBS COUNTRY

PARKSVILLE

It's time to reconnect with nature. And what better place to do that than at the beach. Breath in the salty sea air, bury your toes in the warm sand and feel the stories of the land.

There's a reason Parksville is known as Canada's Riviera. Few beaches outside Mexico and the Caribbean compare with our kilometres of serene sandy beaches at Parksville Bay and Rathetrevor Beach Provincial Park.

Parksville's Community Park, as the name suggests, really is a gathering place for all who live and visit here. Stroll the waterfront walkway and visit the new Lion's Venture Playground & Waterpark - now completely wheelchair accessible. There's beach volleyball courts and even an outdoor fitness gym and a skateboard park where all ages can enjoy many happy hours.

Just up from the beach is Parksville's downtown. Ask a local to point you toward one of the many restaurants and modern boutiques. Browse shops selling soaps, sustainable local products and rustic beach decor.

Celebrate the city's history at the Parksville Museum at Craig Heritage Park home to a number of heritage buildings like a blacksmith's shop, post office and schoolhouse, all filled with artifacts and stories to tell.

FRENCH CREEK

Situated halfway between Parksville and Qualicum Beach on Vancouver Island's "Oceanside Route" Highway 19A, French Creek is a bustling marine community. French Creek is a popular Vancouver Island marina for its central location.

A Federal Dock complete with facilities for visiting boaters, moorage, fresh seafood sales, charter companies, and Ocean EcoVentures Whale Watching & Wildlife Adventures. You will also find the Marine Pub here, as well as home base for the walk on ferry over to Lasqueti Island.

French Creek's Columbia Beach is a popular windsurfing and kiteboarding destination. You will also find the French Creek Pub and Cafe 356 here, as well as the home base for the walk on ferry over to Lasqueti Island.

QUALICUM BEACH

What a quaint town! It's a phrase residents hear a lot. And it's true. Explore downtown Qualicum Beach and find unique, independent boutiques, shops, galleries, cafés, restaurants, brewery and distillery – with no big box stores in sight. The streets are lined by traditional architecture and there is always a colourful array of flowers, trees, planters and gardens found on every corner.

Experience the magic of Milner Gardens and Woodland - 28 hectares (70 acres) of unspoiled natural beauty steeped in royal history perched on the edge of an oceanfront bluff overlooking the Strait of Georgia.

Visit the Qualicum Beach Museum, featuring an extensive and renowned Paleontology exhibit as well as expanding First Nations and Social History exhibits. Oral history videos let visitors discover what Qualicum Beach was like when it was a retreat for the rich and famous, such as Bob Hope and the King of Siam.

Just steps from downtown Qualicum Beach is the town's playground, swimming pool, skate park, BMX track, sports fields, and off-leash dog walking trails.

Join the locals and walk the waterfront promenade. You'll find The Shady Rest restaurant and pub, Shore restaurant, and food trucks along the path lined with picnic tables, and shade trees. There is a wash/change room and lots of parking.

ARROWSMITH COOMBS COUNTRY

South and west of Parksville is Arrowsmith Coombs Country, named after towering Mount Arrowsmith. The mountain is partially responsible for the enviable microclimate surrounding Parksville Qualicum Beach. Walk or ride between Coombs and Parksville on the Rail Trail! Arrowsmith Coombs Country is a collection of rural communities including Coombs, Errington, Hilliers, Meadowood, and Whiskey Creek.

Get up close and personal to raptors, bears and other animals as you take a walk on the wild side at the world-class North Island Wildlife Recovery Centre in Errington. Bring the family, grab your complimentary map brochure and explore beautifully manicured grounds, peaceful gardens and habitat displays while meeting amazing non-releasable, resident animals.

Peruse local produce and crafts at the Errington Farmer's Market at the Community Park, next to the War Memorial Hall on Errington Road.

Englishman River and Little Qualicum Falls Provincial Parks are a highlight for many visitors to this part of the region where they find mountain biking trails, easy wilderness hiking, and spectacular waterfalls.

Surely visitors to the area have heard of the Goats on the Roof. Coombs Country Market is where you'll find them. Famous for its Old Country Market, the shops in this area can best be described as eclectic.

Take a dip in Cameron Lake and see if you can spot the Loch Ness monster-like creature that has been sighted for centuries.

Stop at MacMillan Provincial Park for a view of 800-year-old trees towering 80-meters high, and you'll get a taste of what Vancouver Island forests used to be like. You'll also understand where the park got its familiar name, Cathedral Grove.

LIGHTHOUSE COUNTRY

North of Qualicum Beach you'll discover the charming and rustic, Lighthouse Country. Named for the lighthouses on Sisters Island and Chrome Island, the region includes the communities of Dashwood, Qualicum Bay, Dunsmuir, Bowser, and Deep Bay.

There are no flashy tourist sites in this neck of the woods, instead you'll find stunning wood carvings peppered throughout the area, a few cozy restaurants, LoveShack Libations nano-brewery, and a quaint village centre in Bowser, called Magnolia Court. Stop there for a coffee, shop for gifts and feed your artistic spirit at the Salish Sea Market, which is stocked with incredible local creations like paintings, home decor items, jewelry and soaps.

Winding through the area is Nile Creek, which has a small hatchery where volunteers have helped restore pink salmon to record numbers. Today Nile Creek is known as a world-class fly-fishing destination.

Lighthouse Country's unpretentious small inns, bed & breakfasts, and campgrounds cater to visitors looking for a retreat that's off the beaten path.

If unbridled adventure is what you're looking for, then head to Horne Lake Caves Provincial Park and take a guided tour. Or if a day at the beach is more your style, visit Horne or Spider Lake. Spider Lake, with its patches of sand and warm waters, is a favourite of locals. It's also a popular spot for canoeing and kayaking. Spider Lake is known for its superb fishing year-round, and is stocked with small mouth bass and Rainbow trout. Powerboats prohibited, but small boats, canoes, and kayaks are a common sight.

Further north, the colourful and calm Deep Bay Marina is a pleasant stop. Enjoy some fish and chips while you watch the activity at the dock, or continue on down a road of crushed seashells to the state-of-the-art Deep Bay Marine Field Station. This unique green facility and science centre offers guided and self-guided tours, interactive displays, aquariums and touch tanks, walking trails and more.

NANOOSE BAY

Nanoose Bay is located at the South end of the Parksville Qualicum Beach region.

If you want to experience all Nanoose Bay has to offer, take the scenic route on Northwest Bay Road through the heart of the community.

Just off Highway 19, stop in at the Rusted Rake brewery, the quaint Red Gap commercial hub for a coffee break, grocery shopping, and to stock up on vacation libations at the Cascadia specialty liquor store. At Powder Point Road you can take a short hike up The Notch to admire Garry Oak and Arbutus meadows, and spectacular views of the Strait of Georgia and across to the mainland.

Nanoose Bay is also home to the Fairwinds Golf Club, marinas / fishing charters, recreation facilities, and hidden beaches. Don't miss the new Nanoose Bay Cafe, bar, patio, and pantry at Fairwinds Marina. Moorecroft Regional Park has amazing trails through remote forest and along rocky shores. Paradise Acres Ranch offers horse trail rides into the hills, through fields and forested trails depending on riders' skill level.

Pick up some Vancouver Island grown, hormone and antibiotic-free, beef and chicken at Springford Farm, that is known for environmental stewardship. You'll also find Pacific Shores Resort.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

PLAN AHEAD

Take more time to plan your visit. Many businesses and services across BC are encountering staffing shortages forcing them to operate at a reduced capacity, with limited hours, or require advanced bookings.

BE CALM, BE PATIENT, BE KIND

Remember, everything may take longer than usual, or places may be closed if you don't check in advance. Have a Plan B researched and ready in case your first choice isn't possible.

BE ADVENTURESMART

No matter what outdoor activity you are planning, you must be prepared. Remember to follow the three Ts—trip planning, training, and taking the essentials. AdventureSmart is a great resource to get informed before heading outdoors.

LEAVE NO TRACE

When exploring BC's outdoors, always leave it in a better state than when you arrived.

Learn about the key principles of Leave No Trace, a set of seven guidelines for enjoying the outdoors responsibly while minimizing your impact on the landscape.

Tip: Visit LeaveNoTrace.ca to learn more about responsible outdoor recreation.

CATCH UP ON THE CAMPER'S CODE

The British Columbia Lodging and Campgrounds Association has created a great resource for camping etiquette, here: CampersCode.com. The Camper's Code has 9 rules that are really easy to follow. When all campers follow them, these good things happen:

- Camping continues to be enjoyable for all
- Nature remains pristine and beautiful
- People camping in the same area become friends
- Animals stay wild and free
